For nearly twenty-five years, Lisa Jane's creative talent and distinctive styles have earned her almost every degree and honor in professional photography. However, the artist simply sees her work as the ability to "capture a moment in the life of one tiny soul and keep it forever in a photograph." Check Gallery is very excited to offer the work of such an insightful and talented artist to its consumers.

In early March, 2009, Check Gallery released the new "Lisa Jane's Fairies" product suite on its website, www.CheckGallery.com. In four rotating scenes, the personal checks portray toddler girls dressed as beautiful fairies surrounded by blooming flowers, butterflies, bunnies, and birds. The self-adhesive address labels show the same young girls, but only their angelic faces against pink backgrounds. For the checkbook cover and personal contact cards, only one small fairy is featured with a border and backdrop to match her dress and wings.

Check Gallery's designs have always spoken to a naturalistic audience. In these fairy tale photographs, customers not only get to enjoy a beautiful landscape, but great photography and adorable little fairies as well. "Lisa Jane's Fairies" is a wonderful new addition to the Check Gallery collection. Visit the site to view this or another design that you are sure to enjoy.
