[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims typically seek the services of exclusive detox and treatment facilities. Unfortunately, that search is often impeded by a lack of reliable information about the luxury rehabilitation industry.

That's about to change.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best detox facilities on earth. The goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find the facility that's exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

For addiction victims and their families, that sort of enlightenment can often make all the difference in the world.

Detox and recovery is an extraordinarily complex process. To be successful, it has to be administered exactly the right way, by people who understand precisely what they're doing. The most successful detox facilities are invariably those which employ the most competent caregivers. In the end, there's simply no substitute for expertise in the drug and alcohol recovery process.

But those principles aren't always put into practice.

It's one thing for a detox center to pay lip service to the importance of caregiver excellence. It's quite another for that facility to put its own principles into practice. The unfortunate truth is that many of the most high-priced detox clinics in California employ unqualified or inexperienced therapists. More often than not, these institutions fall far short of the promises they make to their clients.

Given the stakes in the fight against addiction, those sorts of failures can lead to disaster.

It's no secret that drug and alcohol abuse ruins lives. What might not be so obvious, though, is that successful detox and treatment can make all the difference in the world. The professional advisers at LuxuryDrugRehab.com have proven themselves capable of helping clients find the best possible support in the fight against addiction. Now more than ever before, those clients have reason to believe in a better future.

"I just want to say thank you," says one client in a testimonial published on LuxuryDrugRehab.com's Web site. "You found me a rehab center where for the first time I was able to get the help I needed in a quiet, private space with constant attention. All I could hear when I woke up in the morning was the sound of the ocean and the birds. It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."
