[Malibu, CA] - Affluent addiction victims typically seek treatment from elegant luxury rehabs. Unfortunately, that search is often impeded by a dearth of reliable information about the luxury rehabilitation industry.

That's about to change.

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is pleased to announce a new referral service linking affluent addiction victims to the best eating disorder treatment on earth. The goal of LuxuryDrugRehab.com is to help those victims find the facility that's exactly right for them. To do that, the service provides clients with expert personal advice and a thorough understanding of the treatment options available to them.

For recovery patients and their families, that sort of enlightenment can often make all the difference in the world.

Private luxury eating disorder rehabs are only as successful as the caregivers they employ. Addiction is a personal problem, after all, and recovery must be a people-driven process. The best rehab facilities are invariably those staffed by the most competent and compassionate professionals. In the end, any inferior standard of service is simply unacceptable.

But those principles aren't always put into practice.

It's one thing for an eating disorder treatment center to pay lip service to the importance of caregiver expertise. It's quite another for that facility to live up to its own rhetoric. The unfortunate truth is that many of the most "exclusive" eating disorder rehabs in Los Angeles employ inexperienced or unqualified counselors and therapists. As should go without saying, these institutions routinely fall short of the promises they make to their clients.

Given the stakes in the fight against addiction, those sorts of failures can lead to disaster.

No eating disorder victim needs to be told about the perils of the disease. The good news here is that those perils don't have to be fatal, provided that victims get the right kind of support on the road to recovery. LuxuryDrugRehab.com has proven itself capable of helping clients take the first step towards a healthier future. As those clients have learned firsthand, no service could ever be more valuable than that one.

"I just want to say thank you," says one client in a testimonial published on LuxuryDrugRehab.com's Web site. "You found me a rehab center where for the first time I was able to get the help I needed in a quiet, private space with constant attention. It was exactly the kind of space I needed to heal."

LuxuryDrugRehab.com is a referral service dedicated to connecting callers with the right eating disorder treatment center.
