Dominican Republic: Golf lovers, here's good news for you - The Cap Cana PGA Tour commences today. Located just ten minutes away from the Punta Cana airport, Cap Cana is a breath of fresh air. The ultimate destination for luxury, nature and golf aficionados, Cap Cana has proved itself as a fabulous host of this Annual Championship Tournament.

Now in its third year, the Cap Cana PGA Tour attracts those who share a passion for golf, beaches and sunshine like moths to a flame. Held at the famed Punta Espada Golf Club, the golf tournament is just another excuse for tourists from around the globe, especially North America and Europe to come to Punta Cana.

With an escalating real estate market and natural beauty that is second to none, Punta Cana Real Estate has become an acclaimed hot spot for second homes, retirement condos and of course, the ultimate destination to escape the city stresses. With several golf courses spread across lush green patches, Punta Cana is also the favorite holiday spot for those wanting to tee off on a breezy morning.

With numerous beachfront properties available for buying and on rent (both short term and long term), you can now come to Punta Cana whenever you like without having to worry about a thing. All the homes, apartments, condos and villas here have fabulous views of the pristine beaches. You can go for a state-of-the-art, fully equipped property to ensure that your stay is nothing short of perfection.

With perpetual tropical weather and warmth of the natives, there is no doubt that once you come to Punta Cana, you can't help but return for more. And now with the Annual Cap Cana PGA tour, there is one more reason to come to this Caribbean paradise to enjoy your much-loved sport in style.

Whether your idea of rest and relaxation is night life coupled with cocktails by the beach, or a relaxed game of golf and some family time, Punta Cana will offer you all this and much more. The bustling city is always buzzing with tourists and locals, and it's hard to find dearth of activities here.

So are you going to be at Punta Espada Golf Club this month? Come and live it up under the multihued sky with lush green natural beauty and unspoiled beaches thrown in for good measure. If this can't make you forget your blues, nothing can!
